

Freitag, 23.11.2018, 09:00 Uhr – 16:30 Uhr | WeltRaum | Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen, Stuttgart

WIKA-Workshop 2018
Models of Future Cultural Relations
Realities, Challenges, Visions

Programme

(Each talk 25 min + 5 min questions)

9:00–11:00 h

Panel 1: Visions and Challenges for New Cultural Relations

Welcoming Words (video message)

Michelle Müntefering, Minister of State at the Federal Foreign Office (t.b.c.)

Opening Dialogue

Ronald Grätz, Secretary General of ifa (Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen)

Prof. Dr. Caroline Y. Robertson-von Trotha, Chairwoman of the Academic Council on Culture and Foreign Policy

Non-Simultaneity in European Development

Dr. Zaal Andronikashvili, Literary Scholar and Publicist, Zentrum für Literatur- und Kulturforschung Berlin

30 minutes discussion

11:00–13:00 h

Panel 2: Realities of a Neo-Nationalist Development

Has Economy Anything to Do with Neo-Nativist Identities?

Prof. Dr. Antonia María Ruiz Jiménez, Political Sociologist at Universidad Pablo de Olavide, Seville

The Role of the Nation for Sovereignism and Retro-Modernisation in Central and Eastern Europe

Dr. sc. pol. Kai-Olaf Lang, Expert for the CEE Region, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik

Resentment, Neo-Nationalist Movements, and Reactionary Opinion Formation

Dr. Zafer Yilmaz, Faculty of Economic and Social Sciences, Potsdam University

30 minutes discussion

13:00–14:00 h

lunch

14:00–15:30 h

Panel 3: Models of Future Cultural Relations

The Importance of Multilingual Brains for Cultural Relations

Prof. Dr. Antonella Sorace, School of Philosophy, Psychology and Language Sciences, University of Edinburgh

Intercultural Cities: New Realities, New Dimensions, New Actors

Dr. Stefanos Vallianatos, Head of International Relations Department of the Greek Culture Foundation

Cultural Relations as Conflict Prevention

Dr. Jens Adam, Institut für Europäische Ethnologie, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

30 minutes discussion

15:30–16:30 h

Experts' Fishbowl

All speakers

Subject to modifications